GREAT

Cloak Sale THURSDAY

One hundred and thirty-three good, warm, comfortable Coaks and Jackets carried over from last season placed now in

TWO LOTS

and will be sold Thursday at

89c and $1.69 Each

They are just as warm, just as nice goods, just as comfortable as this season's goods, but the difference of a few months gives them to you at 1-15 of their former value. A good many medium full sleeves in the

The first comer will get the choice ones.

L. S. AYRES & CO

Every part of this instrument is made from carefully selected material of Baldwin the best quality, no expense being spared in this regard. Advantages of location and economy in administration have enabled us to combine in the Baldwin Pianos—

High Artistic Merit Solid and Enduring Construction Moderate Price

The action of the Baldwin Piano merits especial attention from the amateur and connoisseur. It is responsive, yet firm, and in the perfection of mateattainable grade.

D. H. BALDWIN & CO. 95, 97 & 99 North Pennsylvania St.

START RIGHT!

Write it right (96 not 95), and do right
-such as coming right to

Pennsylvania and Market Sts.,

- FOR -

WALL PAPER

To the great hall over Pearson's Music Store, opposite the Denison House, for

CARPETS

AND DRAPERIES

You can't miss either. And you can't loose neither. Money savers for you all along the line.

ASTMAN, SCHLEICHER & LEE

> ART EMPORIUM. Telephone 500.

HIGH-CLASS PICTURES, MIRRORS,

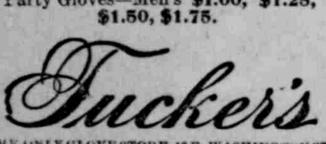

ARTISTIC NOVELTIES,

(Many inexpensive.)

THE H. LIEBER COMPANY,

32 South Meridian St.

ELOPED WITH HIS RIVAL.

James A. Price Appeared at Miss Powell's House for the Wedding.

James A. Price, a street-car conductor. living at 135 West Thirteenth street, reported to Superintendent Colbert yesterday that Edith Powell had disappeared from her home, 65 South East street, Tuesday night, and asked that the police assist him in finding her. He said they were engaged to be married and Tuesday evening was the time set for the ceremony. He procured cense and went to the house. The brideelect excused herself and left the room. aying she would return in a few minutes.

ut she never came back. From what Price said it appears another an has been paying attentions to the girl ad eloped with his rival. She is eighteen ears of age, and as it was apparent from rice's story she left voluntarily, he was oformed nothing could be done. Price said e loved the girl so well he could not give er up. If the other fellow had not come etween them, he said, she would have

A POLICY AGENT ARRESTED.

James Ross Charged with Being the "Backer" of the Games.

James Ross, a gambler, was arrested yesterday on the charge of acting as agent for a lottery scheme. He furnished bail, depositing $100 in cash as security for his appearance in Police Court this morning. It has been understood for some time that Ross was "bucking the bookings" of the Louisville and Frankfort lotteries, or policy games. For the last two weeks the police have been at work quietly securing evidence against the "runners" or ticket ped-diers, and a number have been arrested. he police were anxious to get hold of Ross. as he was regarded as the principal offend- in one year, when he may be succeeded er. Superintendent Colbert said yesterday he was determined to wipe out policy playing. About a dozen arrests have been made | tates considerable travel, anyway, and he

Police Court this morning. Danville Fugitive Captured. George A. Collins, who broke jail at Danville a few days ago, was arrested here

THE NEW YEAR'S DAY

IN INDIANAPOLIS.

The Clubs, However, Were Quite Alive-Down-Town Bars Had a Rushing Trade.

New Year's day Indianapolis ever spent. Willie Knickerbocker-if he lives in Indiancustoms which once gladdened his heart on the first day of the year are things of the past. The smart set, surfeited on the gayeties of the last few weeks, took a day off yesterday. It was not so much that fashion had issued an edict against keeping "open house" and kindred entertainment, but people were not inclined that way and there was little to induce Mr. Knickerbocker to incase his form in his

Very few people kept open house. Formal calls were few. People who owned a sleigh and those who possessed the price of one found delights on the snow-covered boulewards. Others patronized the theaters where a wealth of amusement was to be found. In the afternoon nearly all of the clubs kept open house, but the entertainment at night was almost exclusively confined to the theaters. The matinees drew the usual large crowds of women. Some of the theaters drew ultra fashionable audiences and there were fetching tollets ga-lore. The bars of many of the down-town saloons were open all day. One or two hotel bars kept rear doors wide open and dispensed egg-nog and other liquors regardless of the statutes.

A FINE AGAINST THE MAYOR.

The Elks Assessed Him $1 for the Offense of Holding Office. The Elks gave an informal reception last evening at their hall on North Meridian street. After the reception, at which refreshments were served, an interesting and rial and workmanship is of the highest | characteristic entertainment was held in the lodge hall. James Healy was in the Thomas Taggart $1 for being Mayor of In-dianoplis. Mr. Taggart paid his fine and then made an appeal to the members of the lodge with the result that Mr. Healey was removed from the chair and Jacob Bos was chosen for the place. Fines were imposed without mercy, members being assessed for standing when there were no seats and for being backward when they couldn't get forward. "Little Sara" was the first on the programme, with an Italian dance. Recitations were given by Bruce Ellis, of this city, Hatch & Smith, of the "Span of Life" company; Mr. Thompson, of the Katie Emmett company, and Mr. Neal, of the Henry Morris specialty company. Fred Luceive, of the latter company. pany, gave a very clever musical act. Maurice Mack, of this city, sang several topical songs.

At the Y. W. C. A. The Young Women's Christian Association observed the first day of the new year on an extensive scale. At the association AND FURNITURE rooms, No. 139 North Meridian street, there were hearty greetings and delicate refreshments and a choice programme of musical and literary selections. The young women of the association kept open house between the hours of 3 o'clock in the afterbetween the hours of 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 10 o'clock at night. About four hundred people called during the afternoon and evening. The young ladies were assisted in receiving by the board of managers as follows: Mrs. F. F. McCrea, Mrs.

E. L. Griffith, Mrs. Grace Wood, Mrs. L.
W. Fisher, Mrs. Alfred Stratford, Mrs. E.
G. Cornelius, Mrs. W. W. Winslow, Mrs.
N. H. Kipp, Mrs. R. W. Furnas, Miss Julia
Moore, Mrs. J. J. Brown, Miss Mary Butler, Mrs. J. H. Lowes, Mrs. A. B. Mitchell,
Mrs. H. G. Gaylord, Mrs. L. H. Wales.
Pretty decorations made the rooms bright and attractive. In the large dining room decorations of green were prominent. Here the guests were served with coffee in dainty the guests were served with coffee in dainty cups by dainty hands. In an adjoining room ices and other refreshments were served. Here the decorations were entirely of pink. Cedar and evergreens trailed along the balustrades and swung in festoons from the parlor chandeliers.

At the Marion Club. The members of the Marion Club received their friends in their usual hospitable style. Between the hours of 4 and 8 o'clock yesterday evening a constant stream of visitors poured in and out of the club on Ohio street. The decorations of the rooms were especially attractive. The walls of the double parlors on the first floor were draped with the American flag and large pictures of Benjamin Harrison, Charles W. Fair-banks and other prominent men of the Republican party, living and dead, were dis-played. The guests partook of refreshments in the dining room, and were then furnished with a carnation and a clove. A feature of the entertainment was the fancy dancing of little Sara Mae Bodwell, of Denver, who is on her way to New York city. This young lady executed the most bewildering steps and fairly dazzled the older and more staid members of the club. An orchestra furnished music throughout the evening. There were no speeches.

Company A Entertains. and the members of Company A, Second | Kalb, St. Joseph, Boone, Lawrence, Vigo, Infantry, kept open house at their armory, No. 121 East Pearl street. The officers and many of the privates were in full uni- It is not likely that the penalty of 15 per form. The armory was brilliant in patriotic colors, and a large picture of George Washington, with the pictures of Sheridan and Sherman swung on each side of it, attracted much attention. During the afternoon refreshments in the way of lemonade and sandwiches were offered the guests, and last night the visitors were invited to partake of hard-tack and army beans. An entertainment consisting of recitations, wrestling and boxing matches was given

Odd Fellows Keep Open House. Cantons 2 and 42, I. O. O. F., assisted by the ladies of Olive Branch Lodge, No. 10. Daughters of Rebekah, kept open house yesterday afternoon at the hall of the Grand Lodge. Last night Canton 44, I. O. O. F., also kept open house at the same place. The stage was tastefully decorated with potted plants, behind which an orchestra furnished excellent music throughout the day. Light refreshments were served and many members of the order, as well as a number of their friends, were entertained.

Y. M. C. A. Has a Dinner. At the Young Men's Christian Association rooms guests were received from 5 to 10 o'clock. Decorations consisting of the stars and stripes and the association colors, white and gold, were profuse. There was music all afternoon and evening. From 5 to 7 o'clock dinner was served to members whose homes are out of the city. After-ward all who called were invited to refreshments. Last night several hundreds peo-ple witnessed some spirited games of basket ball in the gymnasium

The Day at the Workhouse. Capt. H. H. Wheatley, the new superintendent of the workhouse, celebrated his induction into office yesterday by treating the prisoners to a turkey dinner.

GOMPERS COMES TO THE CITY.

New President of Federation of Labor Takes Charge of His Office.

Samuel Gompers, the newly elected president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the Bates. He will make this by some other man. His work necession this charge. The cases will come up in | could not be with his family if it were

Mr. Gompers was the first president of the federation, taking the office in 1881. at the time of the organization of the orresterday on the charge of being a fugitive | der. He continued in office until 1887 with-Full line of Bookcases at Wm. L. Elder's. In 1887 the office was made salaried and he then held it until December, 1894, when John McBride, of Massillon, O., was elect-ed in his stead. Mr. Gompers was re-elected at the meeting last December. In a conversation last night Mr. Gompers said: "There never was a brighter outlook for organized labor. Conditions are good for the increase of membership in all organizations. I look forward to the time when every national labor organization in the country will affiliate with the federation. I think the federation has solved a great labor problem. It has passed long beyond the time of experiment, and we can now arrive at conclusions with the cold facts of experience to guide us. We began on a new line by taking in different organizations without disturbing their In a social way yesterday was the dullest own affairs in the least. That was the great trouble with all other organizations that have attempted to do what is now beapolis-arose at 10 o'clock, had his usual take any of their powers from them and holiday turkey and plate of salad for dinner and put in the afternoon at his club. He went to bed at early candle lighting filled with regret that the old-fashioned ter is placed in the hands of the federation and we are given authority that we can or and we are given authority that we can or attempt to do anything. For these reasons I think it is only a matter of time when all the national organizations will af-

John McBride, the ex-president of the federation, left for his home in Massillon, O., yesterday. He says he will take some rest for a few months, which he says he has not had for ten years.

HE WAS ONE OF THE BEST-KNOWN

BERGAPPLEGATEDEAD

BUSINESS MEN IN THE STATE.

Member of Firm of Severin, Ostermeyer & Co.-Cerebral Hemorrhage Brought About Death Last Night.

At 11:55 last night Mr. Bergen Applegate, one of the best-known business men in Indiana, died at his home on North Meridian street of cerebral hoemmorhage. His family and Dr. C. I. Fletcher was at his bedside when death came. For several days the physicians have given his relatives no hope and yesterday afternoon it was seen his demise was a question of only a few hours. An attack of the grip brought on years ago this month, at Dayton, O., wher books of the firm and took the business

Within the last three months he has had an assistant at the books in the office. To know him well was to have a friend and one who would stick closer than a brother. It is firmly believed that he had not an enemy in the world. He had a reputation for integrity not excelled by any business man on Meridian street. Whenever he agreed to do a thing in a trade he expected to do it and live up to it to the letter. Mr. Applegate was president of the Wholesale Grocers' Association of Indiana and his death is a least sociation of Indiana and his death is a loss to the association, for his place will be hard to fill. In the meetings of the association whatever he had to say was listened to with great attention. His counsel was regarded as of the very highest. He could do more to settle a disputed point than any other man in it. Every man was his friend and his face will be missed more on South Meridian street than almost any other man. Mr. Applegate was married in 1864 to Mary Beaty, daughter of David Beaty, one of the old residents of this city. Mrs. Applegate died in Italy five years ago and the sad circumstances of her sudden death in a foreign country among strangers, with only her daughter with her, is well remembered. There is only the one daughter, Mary, now Mrs. William Pirtle Herod, who has two children. His brother, Mr. William A. Applegate, also lives here. Miss Zee Beaty, a sister-in-law, has always made her home with Mr. Applegate and Mrs. Herod. Mr. Applegate was most devoted to his family and friends. It is said of him that no traveling man ever appealed to him and was un-aided. They always had financial help. He was generous to a fault.

Delay of the Counties in Making

A week ago last Monday the body of DeGraff Patterson was buried in the county burial grounds by undertaker Foutz. At that time Mrs. Harvey, a daughter, made complaint to the police that there was an unusual delay in the burial and asked that it be investigated. It was reported to the police that the body had been buried about the time the complaint was made. Mrs. Harvey became suspicious and had the grave opened by undertaker Willis, who found no body there. Mr. Willis says he found indications that the grave had been disturbed. The coffin had been cut open and the body removed, but some underclothing was left in it. Mr. Foutz says he has four witnesses who saw the burial. He thinks it is no wonder the body was stolen after so much publicity about the burial.

Fine Skating on the Canal.

the best it has been this year.

Dalton, high-class Hatter, Bates House,

· Sweeping · Sale!

THAT'LL MAKE THE FUR FLY--A RECORD BREAKER

Is What We Propose for

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

THREE DAYS ONLY

Your Choice of Any

$10.00

the cerebral hoemmorhage. Mr. Bergen Applegate was born fifty-three his mother still lives. While yet in his early youth he went to Cincinnati, where he se-Robert Hosea. Mr. Schnull, of this city, saw Mr. Applegate there as shipping clerk and he took a fancy to him and persuaded him to come to Indianapolis. This he did in 1868 and went to work for A. & H. Schnull as shipping clerk. About 1863 he went with E. B. Alvord & Co., and remained there till 1866, when the firm retired from business. Mr. Applegate then started in for himself and was a merchandise broker, the first one in Indianapolis. He was in the business until Severin & Schnull began the wholesale grocery business in 1868. A year or two later Mr. Schnull retired from the firm and Mr. Ostermeyer became a member of th firm which has continued to this day as Severin, Ostermeyer & Co. Mr. Applegate went into the firm at the same time and has been with them ever since. He was a man of remarkably steady habits and thoroughly systematic. Every Monday morning for over twenty years he has gone out on the Jeffersonville road to Franklin, Edin-burg or Columbus. He has always kept the trips each week as a relief from the indoor work and partly on account of friend-ship for the men who were his customers

THE AUDITORS TO BLAME.

Their Settlements.

Sixteen counties have not settled with Yesterday afternoon Capt. H. C. Castor | the State. They are Allen, LaPorte, De-Tippecanoe, Washington, Marshall Ripley, Sullivan Whitley, Gibson, Knox and Pike. cent, will be charged against the treasurers of these counties. This is a law that has never been enforced, although it does not say that it shall be optional with the State Auditor whether it is enforced. There have, at different times, been unusual things to cause delay, and the habit has gradually become the regular thing for the Auditor to simply suspend this law, which is mandatory. One great reason why this urers. It seems that the intention of the law was not to punish the treasurers for the delay of the auditors, but to provide against their own delay on account of havng money loaned out at the time it should be paid to the State. The usual cause of the delinquency is the failure of the county auditors to prepare the settlement sheets, without which the tresurer can do nothing. The law, however, makes no pro-vision to fine the auditor for his delay, but places all the penalty against the treasurer, who, in most cases, is simply waiting for the auditor to do his duty. Of the sixteen counties that have not settled there s not one case in which the auditor has forwarded the sheet to the State Auditor. A cause of the delay on the part of the auditors is the fact that so many of them are new at the business, having taken charge of their offices last November. They did not realize the amount of work necessary to make up a settlement sheet and did not begin the work soon enough.

THE BODY WAS STOLEN.

DeGraff Patterson's Remains Not Allowed to Rest.

There was excellent skating on the canal wind interfered to some extent with the sport. It was an easy matter to skate up the canal, but was very difficult to come down. Fires were built along the banks, and many a hot wienerwurst served as dessert for a holiday dinner. The skating was

Your Choice of Any

Suit or Overcoat Overcoat Overcoat

FOR

All go in. You can take choice of any $10 Suit or Overcoat in our house for

$6.50

$15.00

FOR

Overcoat in our house for

$9.50

Your Choice of Any

$18 or $20

Suit or

FOR

tions. You can take pick and you can take pick of any $18 and take choice of our finest choice of any $15 Suit or or $20 Suit or Overcoat in and best $25 Suits or Overour house for

$13.50

Your Choice of Any

$22 or $25

Suit or Overcoat

FOR

Walk right among our coun-None reserved. No restric- Thousands to select from, and ters, step from pile to pile coats in our house for

$16.50

This sale begins at 1 o'clock to-day, and ends Saturday night. The price does not cover actual cost of material. That you will make no mistake we repeat that you can buy choice of our $10 Suits or Overcoats for $6.50; of our $15 Suits or Overcoats for $9.50; of our $18 and $20 Suits or Overcoats for $13.50, and of our finest and best $25 Suits and Overcoats for $16.50. NOTHING PLAINER-NOTHING EASIER. None reserved. You can take choice. None of these Suits or Overcoats will be charged or sent on approval, but we will refund money if purchases are not satisfactory.

The Ingress Otothing Store

STORE CLOSED UNTIL

THE CHURCH CROWDED

REV. MR. OSTROM, AT ROBERTS PARK, FILLS EVERY SEAT.

Much Interest Manifested in the Revival Service Now in Progress-Sermon on Christ.

Roberts Park Church was crowded last night to hear Rev. Henry Ostrum, the evangelist who is conducting the revival services. Much interest was manifested and a number of persons went forward to the altar. The music was led by John Hillis, of Greencastle, who is well known here as a leader of evangelical music. He has a clear, beautiful voice and is equally good as a leader or in solos. Last night the seating capacity of the church was not sufficient for the people who attended the meeting and extra chairs were placed at many convenient points. Even then all could not be seated. After his introduction the speaker defended the divinity of Christ and spoke of Him as "that person who, without a sword or an army, has outlived all generals and captains; without having been positively known to have written a book, has outlived all contemporary authors, and outlives all nodern authors; without having held a deed for a square foot of land, has out-lived all millionaires and plutocrats; without having seen a steam engine, has outived all explorations and continues to out live all inventions; the poor man's friend the rich man's counselor; the reformer of the Pharisaical church of His day; the rebuker of the self-centered government of His day. He stands a miracle of the ages-Immanuel, God with us. Men undertake to crowd Him out of His own world, and there have been violent attempts to crowd Him out of influence, but deep in its heart the human race knows that Christ is its only hope. There has been a violent attempt to crowd Jesus Christ out of business. Men tell us that business is business, and religion is religion. But business is Christianity, and Christianity is business, and there is as much difference between religion and Christianity as there is between sand land and a field of wheat. I do not think there can be a more en-chanting calling open to man to-day than that of demonstrating to the world that Christ-His teaching, His spirit, His very life-can be taken into the business opera-tions of daily life. What is a man's business but the method by which he finds holy enjoyment and holy defense against the suffering and the needs of those intrusted to him? Shall a man lean appendix to a plow, or a yardstick, or a railroad, or an ore crusher? God made him to be a king, and gave him his commission to subdue the earth and have dominion. And one of the saddest exhibitions of the wickedness introduced into his life by sin is that this king will run away from "There have been indications of an attempt to crowd Christ out of His own church. I would not speak carelessly or thanklessly of that best institution of earth to-day, the Christian church. The church highway, at the entrance virtues very dearly. But she has strongly verged again upon the brink of selling out to all kinds of formularies, and statements, and triffing entertainments in the place of truly enthroning Christ. They tell us that all sublects of general interest lead up to Christ I do not deny that there is a connection between all subjects of true interest and Jesus Christ. But the world is hungering for Christ himself. You might take me to the Atlantic cable and tell me that this leads up to Cyrus W. Field, but if I had known nothing about Cyrus W. Field's inventing dying, pulsing Christ. They tell us now that we shall presently have a unity of religions; that we shall be called upon to mingle a little Mohammedanism, and Buddh-

Gas Consumers Complain. ism, and Brahamanism, and Shintuism with a little Christianity, and that in the bming days we shall have a broad, great "When I was a boy, an old minister pre-sented me with Caird's "Oriental Religions," and ever since I read it I understood that fand ever since I read it I understood that there were certain virtues in heathen religions, accompanied by a great many vices, and that these virtues are a result of Christ, the true light, shedding some cannot be brought up to what he would like.

light into the heart of every man that com-eth into the world. But there is one Chris-tianity. Only one Christ, and Christ is the Christian. The true Christian is a Christ man-Christ, Christ, Christ-i-anity."

Close and Exciting Finishes on Meridian Street Yesterday. It being the first day of the new year, North Meridian street was dedicated exclusively to sleighing yesterday. The best horses of the city were speeded over the fine course and there were many excellent contests. During the afternoon the broad street was crowded, somewhat to the detriment of racing. The sidewalks were crowded, too, with people, who discussed the merits of the different horses, but all discussions had to be carried on in loud tones, for there was a constant jingle of sleighbells and shouts from the more enthusiastic. The course was a trifle heavy, but, notwithstanding, there were some good displays of speed. The street from St. Clair to New York streets presented indeed a gala appearance. The turnouts seen on the race course were various kinds, patterns and styles. There were a number of fancy sleighs and cutters, which did more grand-stand traveling than racing. There were stylish cutters with stylish horses hitched to them, but some of these stylish horses threw a great deal of snow without making any wonderful time. Several well-known race horses of local fame were in the great freefor-all, but frequently these blooded ani-mals were bested by wiry little animals whose parents are already unknown. On a track these blooded animals could probably have left the common horses at the three-quarters pole, but on the snow a horse must possess peculiar qualifications in order to win. During the middle of the afternoon the course was so crowded as to make speeding dangerous. The racing was all toward the south, the finish being in the square between New York and Vermont streets. The sport was spoiled to some extent by men who could not drive a Robert J. to win a three-minute pace. For the most, these careless drivers had livery rigs, and they raced across the street, northward, and in all directions, interfering with the better horses. The best horses had their owners behind them, and great care was taken. The weakness of the drivers of very slow horses was to make a show of speed. These poor horses would be driven in ahead of the good ones, keeping the latter in a pocket, and making it appear at the finish that the poor ones were winning. Toward evening the poor horses had worn themselves out, and the course was clear for the best sport of the day. There were at least a half dozen close finishes, made while the spectators on the sidewalks Mayor Taggart joined the crowd during the afternoon, and he was behind a very good horse. Mr. Taggart seemed to take nore pleasure in the sport than in one of his own cabinet meetings. He was greatly disappointed because his best horses are in winter quarters, so he had to content him-self with his family horse, which has seen better days on the track. NOT BOOMING CHICAGO.

FINE TRIALS OF SPEED.

SI P. Sheerin, of the Democratic Committee, Denies a Report.

Sheerin, secretary of the Democratic national committee, would use his influence to secure the selection of Chicago as the place for holding the next Democratic convention, the cable, could I possibly find out about Mr. Field from looking at that gutta percha and wire? It would indeed lead up to Mr. Field, but the elevator is invisible. This world wants Christ—the personal Christ, the living Christ; the real saving, abiding, unclaimed the find the fin

> There is yet considerable complaint from the suburbs and outskirts of the city on account of the lack of gas, although the with this kind of weather last winter. John

Drop Lights, Stand Lights, Beautiful Decorated Shades, or a

- HANDSOME CHANDELIER -

C. ANESHAENSEL & CO.

Marion Block. Cor. of Meridian and Ohio Sts

An elegant assortment shown by

JOHN, RAUCH, Mfr.

the pressure here considerably. A Story Without Truth. Murray A. Verner, of the Citizens' Streetnight. He says there is no foundation for the story that the road is to be sold to R.

T. McDonald, of Fort Wayne, or that the Broad Ripple line is to be bought. He says his trip is merely for the purpose of look-ing after routine business. He was in consultation with his attorneys for some time yesterday afternoon. Iowa Timothy Hay

Best and brightest in the market. Ar-kansas prairie, good feeding hay, cheap. Special price on carloads. Phone 396. Frank E. Janes, 107-113 North Delaware I., D. & W. and Clover Leaf Route

Has through sleeping and parlor cars to St. Louis. Fare, $5.50. Ticket offices, Union Depot and 134 South Illinois street. Don't fill your stomach with spirits which wreck it. Cook's Extra Dry Champagne Fancy marble Mosaic Floors. Jno. M. Lilly.

Insure your home in the Glens Falls. Feed Janes's Dustless Oats. Cold Weather Ahead-Good Sleighing. Go to headquarters for a new sleigh. There is lots of cold weather ahead. Here you will find the latest designs in sleighs at whole-ale and retail. COM-STOCK & COONSE CO., 199 South Meridian street.

Patrons of W. B. Burford In ordering visiting cards will find that he is prepared to take especial care of copper plates intrusted to his Sleigh Robes.

Fisk Carriage House have a few more Fur Robes at Browning's Cough Syrup. Guaranteed to cure. 15 West Washington street. Holiday Wines. SCHULLER'S, 106 N. Meridian St KIMBALL PIANOS. Cartin & Lennox, 31 E. Market

FINE SILVER GOODS

FOR Fine Cigars. PIERSON'S, 12 North Pena.

Salad Sets, Oyster Forks, Soup Spoons, Cheese Spoons, Ice Tongs, Cream Ladles, Oyster Ladles, Can- What We Do and Others Don't delabra, Cream Pitchers, Sugar Bowls, Black Coffees, etc. Sterling Pieces for the service and decora-

A Cigar that is Honest and Genuine From Start to Finish . . .

He says the third pump will be ready Sat-urday, and that he thinks that will raise

Florsheim's

Wish all citizens of Indianapolis a . . . Prosperous 1896 faith we will con tinue to sell . . . Best Quality English Enamel

To show our good

Men's Shoes at $5.00

(We make them. We save you the middle man's profit.) Dry Feet Means

Good Health

Buy Your Cork Soles at . . . Florsheim's,

"Seasonable Goods"

N. W. Cor. Wash. and Penn.

Diaries for 1896. Physician's Visiting Lists for 1896. Peloubet's Notes for 1896. Prices always the lowest at CATHCART, CLELAND & CO.'S, Booksellers

Indianapolis, Ind.

LEAST WASHINGTON STREET,

We produce the finest laundry work We do it at less wear and tear than Send postal or Phone 249 and have your linen called for and delivered. THE EXCELSIOR LAUNDRY.

The Sunday Journal, by Mail, $2 a Year